

Top 11 Reasons to Hire an Insurance Consultant

1. You've had a claim and need fast answers to your questions.
2. You need to comply with safety meeting requirements and need a creative and effective strategy to engage and train your employees.
3. You're new in business and don't know where to start.
4. You haven't seen your agent's face in three years and don't know if you have the right coverage to protect your business.
5. You want to bid out your insurance but don't have the time or expertise.
6. You want world-class, unbiased, insurance advice from professional that doesn't get paid on commission or from an insurance company.
7. Your agent made a mistake and you've lost faith. Where do you turn for answers?
8. You're experiencing injuries on the job and need to find solutions to reduce your workers compensation claims.
9. You don't have the time, energy, or staffing to manage your insurance needs – property and casualty, medical, workers compensation, business auto.
10. You think you're overpaying and not getting the service or protection for your money. How do you find out?

11. THE MOST IMPORTANT –

Why would you spend your valuable time to properly manage your insurance and maybe get it wrong, when you can hire a consultant to save you time, money, and frustration and get it right?

In the end, a good consultant is not an expense, but an investment. An investment that returns on reduced premium, improved protection, and saved time for you to run your business.

That's why YOU need a Go2Guy...